

Center for Renewable Energy Research and Environmental Stewardship
Board of Directors

Dr. Len Peters is the Secretary of the Energy and Environment Cabinet.

Dr. Brian K. Clardy is an assistant history professor at Murray State University. He represents postsecondary education interests.

Donald G. Colliver is an engineering professor at the University of Kentucky. He represents postsecondary education interests.

Dr. Mickey R. Wilhelm is the former Dean of the J.B. Speed School of Engineering. He represents postsecondary education interests.

Kris Kimel is the President of the Kentucky Science and Technology Corporation.

Kenneth Seibert is President of CMTA engineers. He represents an energy conservation organization.

A designee of Secretary Larry Hayes representing the Cabinet for Economic Development.

Arthur Williams is the Executive Director of the Kentucky Conservation Committee. He represents consumer advocates.

Cliff Ashburner is an attorney for Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs. He represents companies focused on renewable energy.

Kelley Kline focuses on regulatory and government relations for GE Appliances & Lighting. She represents companies that focused on renewable energy.

John M. Wright is the Vice President of Strategic Planning and Development at Owensboro Grain Company. He represents companies focused on renewable energy.

Cam Metcalf, retired, is the past Executive Director for the Kentucky Pollution Prevention Center. He represents environmental interests.

Rhonda Trautman is the Mayor for the City of Glasgow. She represents local government interests.